ALBANY

• York*

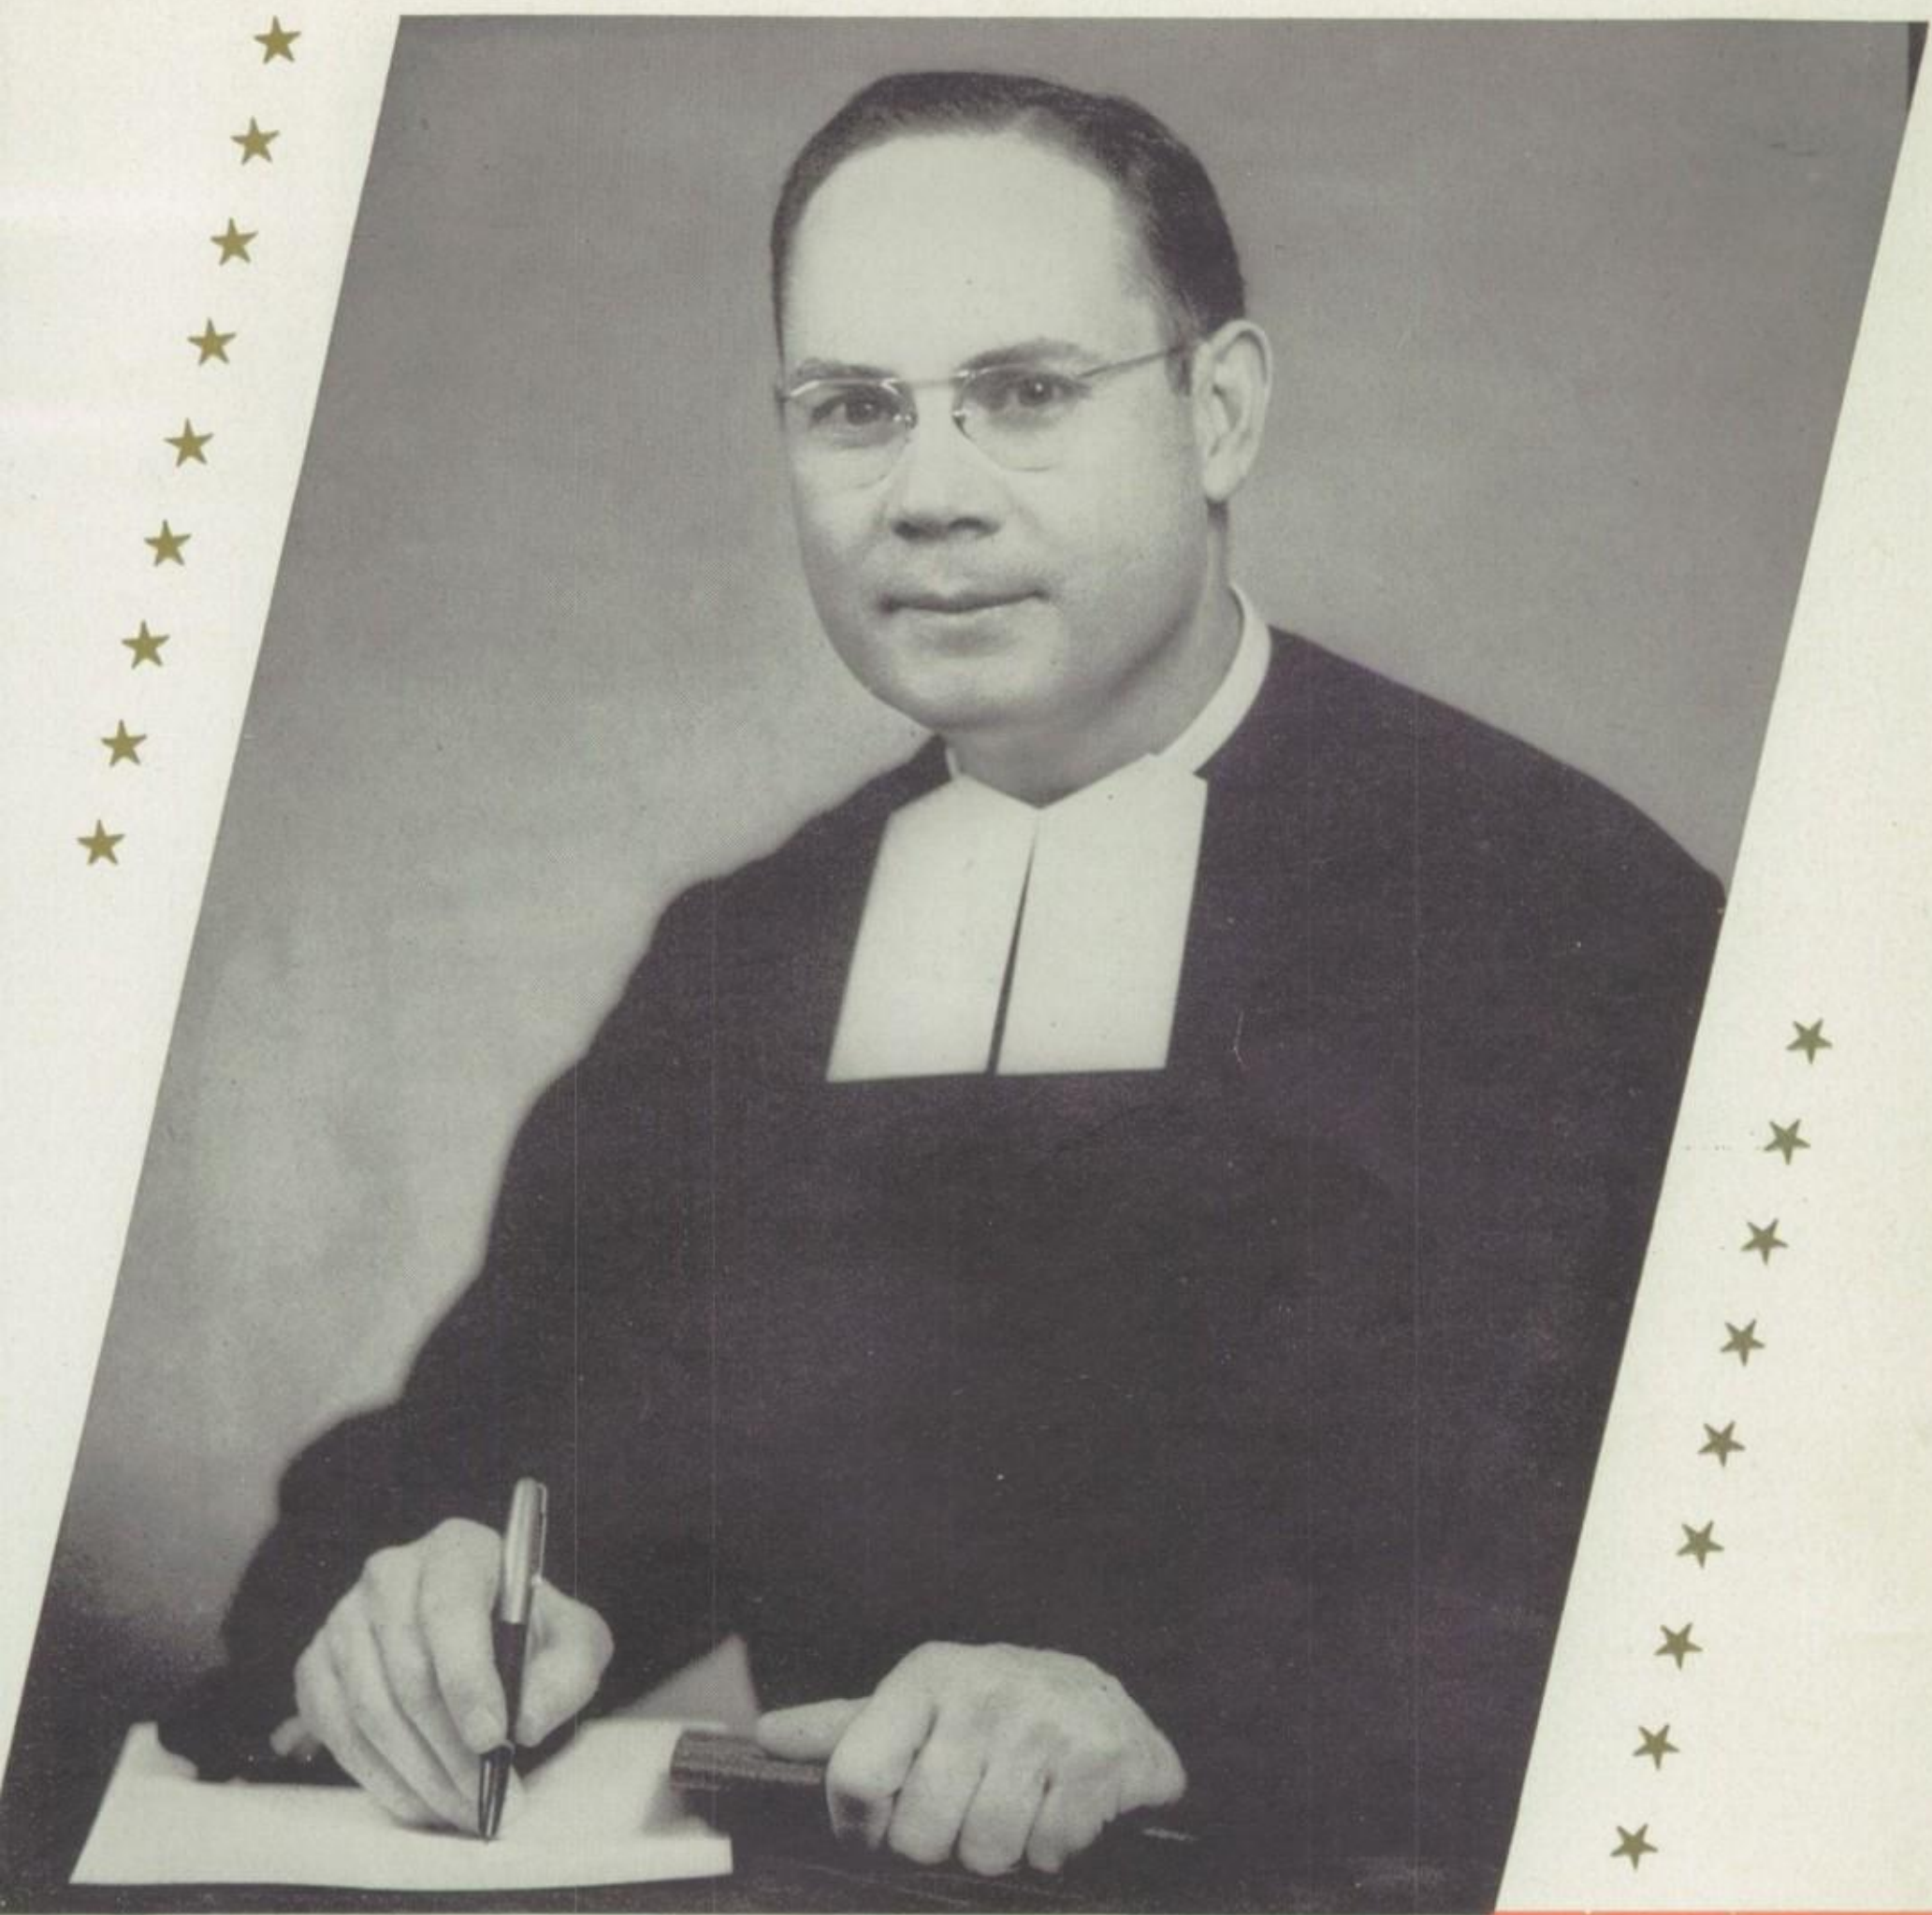

The year of 1955 marks not only the termination of the high school days of the Class of 1955, but also brings to completion the nine years' term of Reverend Brother B. Thomas, F.S.C., as director of Christian Brothers Academy.

May we, in dedicating this yearbook to you, assure you that all of us are aware of your achievements in the development and beautification of the buildings and grounds of our school.

But much more do we value and treasure the remembrance of your deep interest in our personal welfare, your unfailing kindness and courtesy, and your splendid example of devotion to the highest ideals of good citizenship and right conduct.

Affectionately DEDICATED to

REVEREND BROTHER THOMAS, F. S. C.

ALBANY

"Cradle of the Union"

What figure typifies more strongly the Dutch Era of Albany's history than the strong-willed Pieter Stuyvesant. On April 1, 1682 he first set his silver-laced wooden leg ashore at Fort Orange, and proceeded to battle the patroons for a tract of land, bordering on the Hudson, and extending sixteen miles inland. It was this tract of land, wrested from the gentry—the Van Rensselaers and the Van Schlechtenhorsts—that became the municipality of Albany.

The title—Albany, Cradle of the Union—is no empty claim or idle boast. The historic meetings that took place here in the summer of 1754 were presided over by a very great American, Benjamin Franklin. It was he who formulated and championed the resolution that "a Union of the colonies is at present absolutely necessary for their security and defense." What closer ties with the realities of history can we Albanians look for than the fact that in a building on Hudson and Broadway, the "Plan of Union" was first expounded.

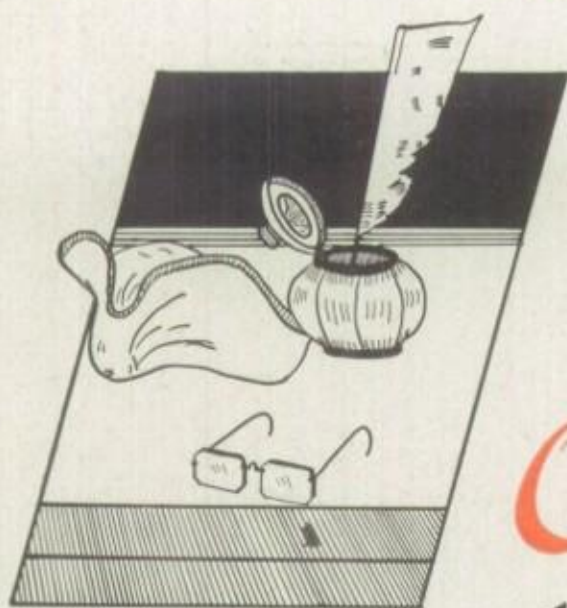

One name stands highest in Albany's Revolutionary history—that of Major General Philip Schuyler, who commanded the American Army of the North, and who skillfully routed the western wing of the British Campaign against New York. A fearless, daring patriot, he richly deserved the tribute paid him by Daniel Webster: "General Schuyler ranked next to Washington in his service to his country."

The Seniors of 1955 are happy, through the pages of this, their Yearbook, to pay tribute to Albany and the famous men who shared in its history.

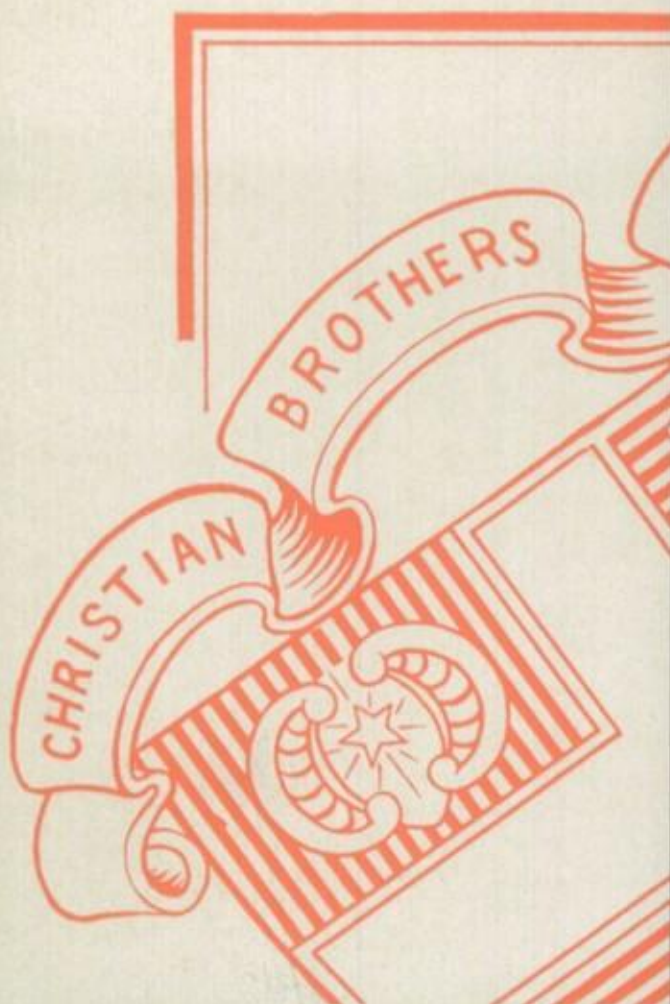

*O*n the opposite page, we introduce to you a little character, named Beetle Van Schlectenhorst – so 'tis said. He's not a gremlin; he's not a gnome. He's just a chap left over from colonial days who likes it so well around CBA that he won't leave. Beetle is just one of the boys.

Beetle says that school is just the same as in colonial days. Only the buildings have changed. And some of the subjects are tougher to crack. Beetle thinks some of the faculty might even be the same, but he won't swear to that. With this in mind, we now present this year's school and faculty. - - - - -

Brother Leonard, Guidance Counselor, looks over some college brochures with John La-Bombard (standing) and Garth MacFarland—helping the boys to settle their “future.”

Physics is said to be a tough course, but the 4B Class don't think it's too bad when an interesting teacher like Brother William is doing the explaining.

Brother Felix puts across a quiet joke in his Sophomore English Class. Or, has one of the boys tossed in a smart remark. A little laughter lightens the school day.

Brother B. Joseph, Admissions Director at Manhattan College, was on hand during Career Day to answer questions put to him by the boys of 3A in regard to college courses and requirements.

A visit to the Chapel each day is a treasured tradition for every Cadet. John McCann and Edward Gallagher examine at close range the figures adorning the Christmas Crib. James Fiorella directs his attention to the main altar.

Brother A. Francis makes Mathematics easy and interesting to John Valente, Robert Starzec and David Yezzi. Next week we'll take up the Einstein Theory.

Garth MacFarland displays some neat balancing ability in getting down the aisle in the Mess Hall with a heavy lunch tray. There will be a nice mess in the Hall if he drops it.

*A*las, poor Beetle, we knew him well.
But once again a Senior Class leaves him behind. For many years Beetle has followed the classes through our great halls. Yet he has never quite reached the day of graduation. Perhaps he doesn't want to leave. Perhaps he can't get out.

In any case, we now present to you the Class of '55, and we ask Beetle Van Schlectenhorst to remember us fondly, and to wish us well as we take our places in the ranks of the distinguished Alumni of Christian Brothers Academy. - - -

THE SENIOR POLL

*E*verybody loves a parade, but Beetle loves them more than anybody. Nobody can miss Beetle in a parade; he's always there at the end of the company. His rifle may be out of line; he's in step only with himself; he may be blowing the wrong note on his fife. Let's face it, Beetle is the one who is looking at the people along the street.

But he comes through with flying colors, and so does the regiment. He says it's the esprit de corps, and that we get that from Brother Boniface, Captain Joyce, and the Cadet Officers. We are all proud of Our Military. - - - - -

THE CBA ARMORERS

Strutting Down State Street

A Great Day for the Irish! And the Wansboro add just the right touch to the Annual Albany St. Patrick's Parade, with a fine flourish of precision marching.

"There's No Business Like Show Business." Our Glee Club, numbering 67 in full force, gets a taste of area Television, "Ultra High Frequency" no less. In spite of unlimited appearances, Television, Radio, Auriesville, Spring Concert and a number of other programs they still find time to practice. Here they put on a program for Forest Willis's afternoon show. The Pennsylvanians have nothing on us.

"So Dear To My Heart." Here you can see our Glee Club as they looked at a post-season demonstration. The event was the commemoration for the Albany Plan of Union put on by the New York State Board of Regents, June 25, 1954. We performed before many distinguished guests including Congressman Leo O'Brien, Governor Thomas E. Dewey and Governors of neighboring states as well as members of our State Legislature. No wonder it is dear to our hearts.

OF 1955
"THE

CAST OF "THE MILKY WAY"

MEMBERS OF THE STAGE CREW

We can't understand how the set looked so good if this is all they did backstage. (great job, gang!)

Seated (l. to r.): James Gleason, Edward Murphy, Thomas Burke, Charles Sano.

"A Tribute to a Great Director-Mr. Hardmeyer"

The Senior Class presented "The Milky Way," a hilarious comedy in three acts, on the nights of February 9 and 10 in the school gymnasium.

Just as a Broadway production is taken on the road, the school play was given a few out-of-town presentations. The first stop was St. Anne's Home, then St. Peter's Hospital, and finally the troupe took to the hills of Mt. McGregor to present their play at the Veteran's Hospital.

The 1000 spectators who saw the play at CBA were highly pleased with the performances. "The Milky Way" will long be remembered as one of the best in the school's history.

Mr. Hardmeyer explains to Edward Smith and Charles Morrill the intricacies of playing their parts and also how to become hot sports reporters.

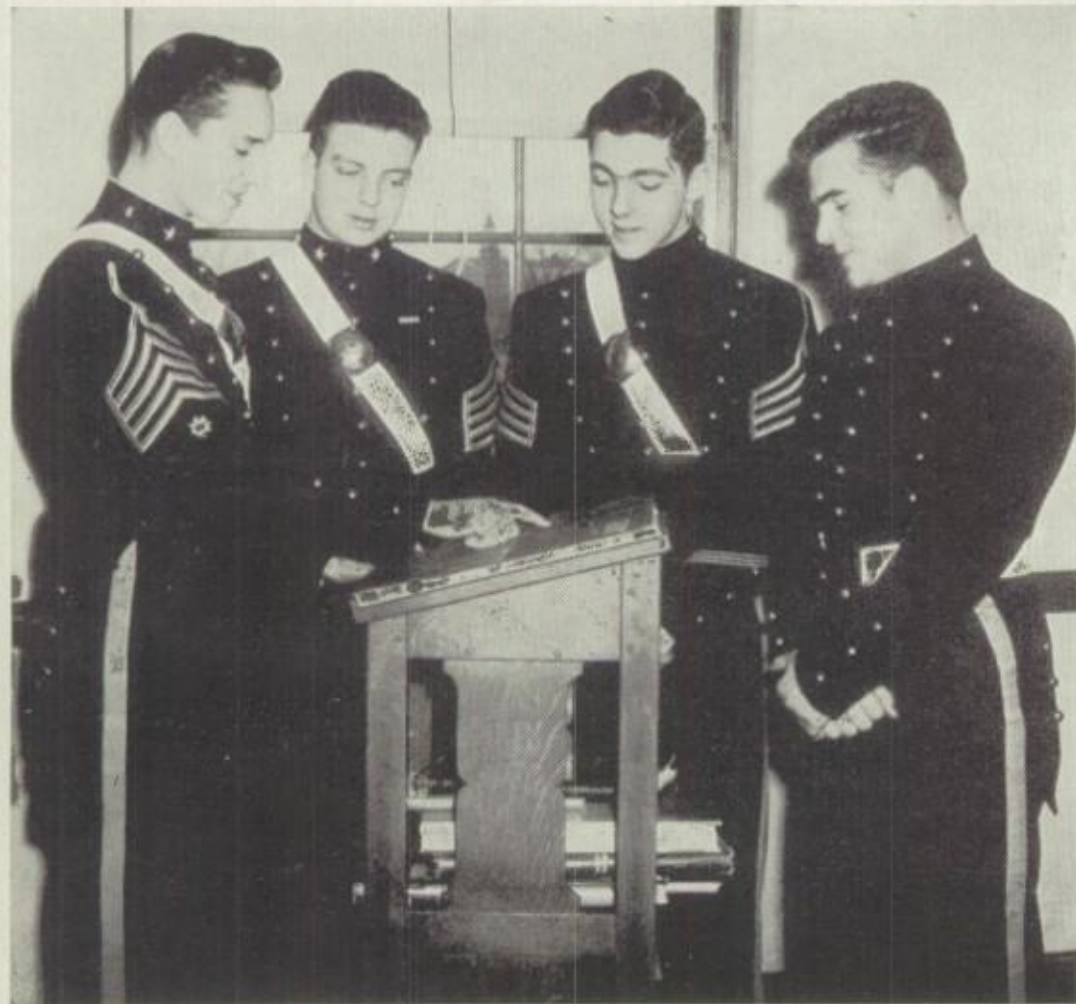

"Well, it was sort of a plop," explained Ed "Killer" Kane, to Catherine Early and Tom Bailey in the scene before his first pre-arranged (fixed) professional fight.

ORATORY CONTESTS AND DEBATE TOURNAMENTS

Brother Benedict congratulates Patrick Grossi on his victory in the Junior Class Oratory Contest, held in January. Looking on are the second and third place winners: Michael Davis and Michael Collins. Brother Benedict prepared the eight contestants from the Junior Class who participated in this competition. The Contest was one of the most interesting heard at CBA in recent years.

For the first time in several years, CBA was represented by a real "Varsity" team in debating. To the right we see Brother Arator conferring with Bill Martin, Ed LaRow, Ed Murphy and Garry Lavigne just before the team took part in the Siena Tournament. The boys scored well in this debate and went on to the State Finals. They also took a Third Place Award in the CBA, Syracuse, Tournament. The team was coached and directed by Brother Leonard.

Third Row: Harry Ford, Bruce Merges, Raymond Andi, Timothy Caulfield, Michael Riley, Joseph Urgento, John O'Connell, Meldon Kelsey, Joseph Sayers.

FAMILY NIGHT AT C B A

This year saw a great increase in the number of dances at CBA. In addition to the Hallowe'en and the Block "B" dances, sponsored by the Dance Committee and moderated by Brother James, there were several "Family Night Dances" after the basketball games. These dances were originated and promoted by Brother Arator, and met with enthusiastic support from the student body.

Many parents stayed after the games to watch the dancing and listen to the music. At the upper right are Mr. and Mrs. Howard Connelly and Professor and Mrs. Donald McCarthy.

THE WINTER PROM JANUARY 29th

The crowning moment of the Winter Prom was the selection of the Queen, and her march through the arch of swords to the fireplace of the Old English Inn. And a lovely Queen she was: Miss Pat McPhee, escorted by CBA's great athlete, Tom Bailey.

"THE LOVELIEST NIGHT OF THE YEAR"

A few of the couples take time out from the danceable music of Al Abele to discuss last night's game with the officers of La-Salle Institute. Among the group are Miss Mary Ellen Farrell and Colonel Dan Muth, Miss Sally Seville and Major Garry Lavigne, Miss Jacqueline Murphy and Sgt. Major Donald Graham.

The Queen must have her Court. Assisting Colonel Muth and Lieutenant Bailey in the crowning of Queen Patricia McPhee are the Princesses: Heather Eastman, Esther Hoag, Posie Henzel, Mary Ellen Farrell, Pat Marohn, Patricia Cairns, and Betty Robillard.

STAFF OF THE SCHOOL PAPER "THE SENTRY"

THE LADIES AUXILIARY OF C B A

The Ladies Auxiliary of Christian Brothers Academy opened its year of activities under its new President, Mrs. Donald McCarthy. The various functions scheduled for the year will follow the general pattern of events of previous years, so successfully directed by previous past Presidents and officers.

The first event of the calendar was the September Silver Tea, a "get-acquainted get-together." The chairmen for this fine affair were Mrs. Richard Calentone and Mrs. Richard McCarroll, shown at the right with the President welcoming one of the Freshman mothers.

The Annual Communion Breakfast of the Ladies Auxiliary, a regular autumnal event, was held on Nov. 11, 1954. The main speaker this year was the Reverend Thomas H. Kay, pastor of St. John's Church, pictured at the left. Next to him is Mrs. Frank Quackenbush, who served as co-chairman with Mrs. Richard P. Crinigan. At the right are Mrs. Donald McCarthy, President of the Ladies Auxiliary, and Brother Thomas, Director.

The traditional Harvest Shower of the Ladies Auxiliary was again directed by Mrs. Eugene Fallon and Mrs. Grace Mack, shown at the right with Mrs. McCarthy and Brother Thomas.

OFFICERS OF THE SCHENECTADY AUXILIARY

LADIES AUXILIARY OF SCHENECTADY

The activities of the Ladies' Auxiliary of Schenectady included several successful Rummage Sales, Bake Sales and Card Parties. In addition, a Christmas Party and Buffet Supper was held, directed by a committee composed of the following ladies: (l. to r.): Mrs. L. Chesky, Mrs. J. Ivinski, Mrs. J. O'Sullivan, Mrs. M. Nowinski, Mrs. J. Della Villa, Mrs. P. Frank, Mrs. F. Wilber, Mrs. R. Muth.

THE MEN'S ASSOCIATION OF C B A

OFFICERS OF THE MEN'S ASSOCIATION—1955

Second Row: James Gleason, President; Howard Frank, Vice-Pres.; Al Smith, Historian; Kenneth Robinson, Secretary.

"The year was an active one"

Chairmen of the Door Committee, which handled all details of home basketball games were Mike Blanchfield and Paul Teufer.

The Steak Roast of the Men's Association was held at Picard's Grove in early September. Charley Young (center), Sports Editor of the Knickerbocker News, exchanges a few words and toasts with a few of the gang.

CHRISTIAN BROTHERS ACADEMY ALUMNI OFFICERS

Homecoming Day October 29, 1954

John Slattery (left) and "Dates" Barrett (right) give a football lecture to the members of the 1932 team. They brought football back to CBA, and were the honored guests at this year's Homecoming Day.

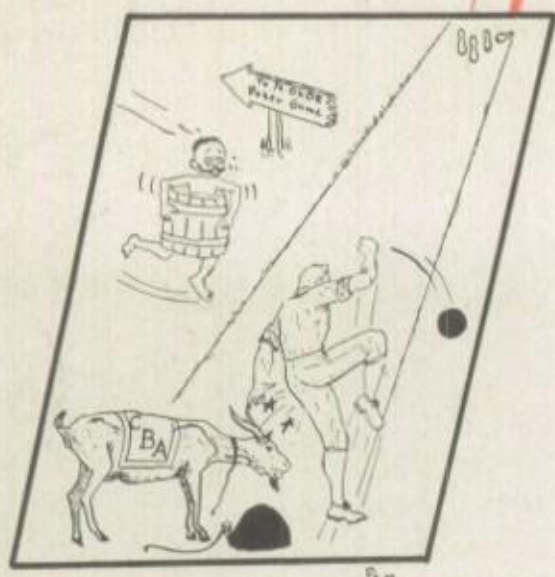

Tom Bailey, CBA grid star of 1954, receives the Brother Aloysius Memorial Award and Trophy from Brother Arator. The Award is given annually to the CBA player turning in the best performance at the V.I. game.

From out the stands comes the CBA war-cry. Yes, it's Beetle again, cheering his heart out till the last second of play. He's the first to get into the stands, and the last one to leave, and whatever the score is, he'll tell you that CBA can't lose. In short, Beetle is the spirit behind the spirit behind the teams of the "Brothers."

This do-or-die spirit prevails on all our teams, and has given CBA good reason to boast of its athletic record. With a vote of thanks to our great coaches, Mr. Falivene and Mr. O'Haire, we present the Athletes of our school.

Athletics

John Romano and Ray Donnelly were the co-captains of CBA's 1954 football team. Both were on the starting team for three years. Ray was named by the Knickerbocker News to the All-Albany first team and to the second team by the Times Union. John received honorable mention in the Knickerbocker and second team in the Times Union.

THE C B A FOOTBALL TEAM OF 1955

First Row (left to right): G. Kelsey, T. Burke, R. Casey, F. Wallingford, J. Pallone, R. Donnelly, Co-Captain, J. Romano, Co-Captain, T. Bailey, J. DiGiulio, B. Kissane, W. Straney, J. Purcell. Second Row: Brother Leonard, Athletic Director, P. Teufer, N. Preston, H. Ford, J. Horan, G. MacFarland, R. Andi, B. Andi, J. Miazga, A. Fogarty, R. Whelan, Mr. Carl Falivene, Coach. Third Row: N. Caimano, P. Blanchfield, J. Wink, O. Barr, N. Goes, C. Lehman, R. Horan, D. Crotty, J. Riley, K. Robinson, D. Foster, E. Maki.

Tom Bailey, the Brothers' top back, was named first team All-Albany by both the Knickerbocker News and the Times Union. He was also awarded the Thom McAn trophy for brilliance as a CBA back for three years. He will be long remembered by Albany fans for his four touchdown effort in the Catholic High game of 1953.

TOM BAILEY

No football team would be complete without a small do or die player. CBA's Gene Kelsey filled such a role for three years. Although he was a reserve, he gave everything in all the games he played.

John DiGiulio displays his block-busting form that weakened many a line for two years. Will long be remembered for his outstanding defensive play and strong desire to win.

Ray Casey in his first year of Varsity ball proved valuable to the single wing style of attack. His speed and agility helped CBA out of many tight spots this year.

CBA coach, Carl Falivene, discusses strategy over the phone with backfield coach "Ike" Whalen. "Ike, will the screen pass go?"

Tom Burke was a varsity reserve for two years, but showed to advantage in the Catholic Central and Albany High games.

Bill Kissane was the first team center for two years. His very aggressive style of play helped the Brothers to many touchdowns.

SENIOR GRIDDERS

Ray Andi, who was responsible for the tie with Kingston with an unerring PAT, was a varsity starter for three years.

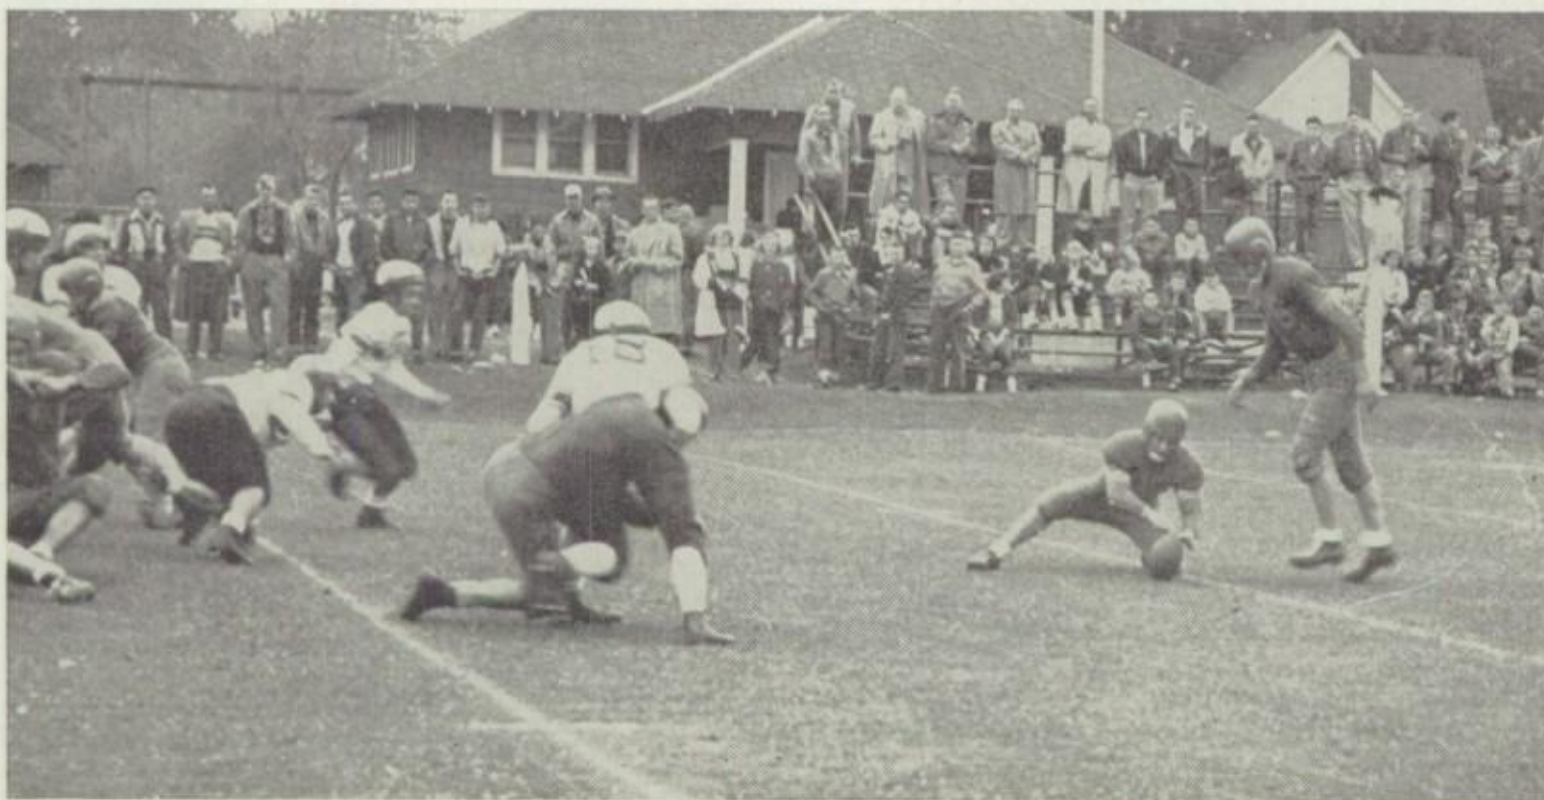

Ken Robinson hurdles a Vincentian man in form that befuddled many opposing defenders.

Jack Horan saw plenty of action for the Brothers in his three years on the varsity, and is considered a top college prospect.

" - AND THEN THE WHISTLE "

John Romano and Ray Donnelly shake hands with Mickey Corcoran and Tony Malone, Vincentian captains, during pre-game instructions.

Ray Andi shows how it's done as he adds CBA's seventh point to the scoreboard during the first quarter against Gloversville. Tom Bailey is holding the ball.

Jack Pallone was CBA's strong boy tackle this year. One of the best tackles in the city, he will long be remembered for his determination and spirit during many games.

Jerry Purcell was the surprise of the season. A boy who never played football before this year, Jerry was outstanding in every game he played.

Harry Ford gave everything he had every minute this season. His defensive play was stellar throughout the season, especially in the LaSalle game.

Bob Andi, Bing Kissane, and Tom Bailey stagger in from practice followed by Paul Teufer, Ray Donnelly, Tom Burke, and John Romano.

Garth MacFarland, CBA end, was rated the best pass catching end in the city this year. In the Kingston game he ran wild scoring once and setting up another touchdown.

"Leggo my head", hollers Jack Riley, junior end, as he is mauled by two Vincentian defenders after catching a Bailey aerial.

Don Crotty, junior sensation, was named All-Albany for the second straight year by the Times-Union. His all around play and drive has earned him a reputation as being one of the finest players ever to don the Purple and Gold.

THE SEASON'S RECORD

During October the Cross-Country team participated in one dual meet, defeating New Lebanon, 15-40, for a perfect score. The CBA harriers took the first seven places with Captain John Keegan taking individual honors.

This meet served as a warm-up for the open meets in which the team made a good showing. In the Proctor Meet the team finished eighth, and in the Grout Meet the Brothers finished 6th. Ed Roche was the individual winner in the Class Division of the Cobleskill Meet, with the team taking second place honors. At Gloversville the CBA harriers placed third.

Brother Denis, Coach of the team, brought the team along very nicely this year, and next year's prospects are bright, although the team will miss Sal Rinella, Chuck Sano and John Keegan.

An aggregation of seniors demonstrate, under Coach O'Haire's watchful eye, the art of set-shooting. The seniors were the mainstays of the team this year, and every one of them will be missed by CBA followers. But Coach O'Haire can be depended on to round our promising underclassmen into shape for next season.

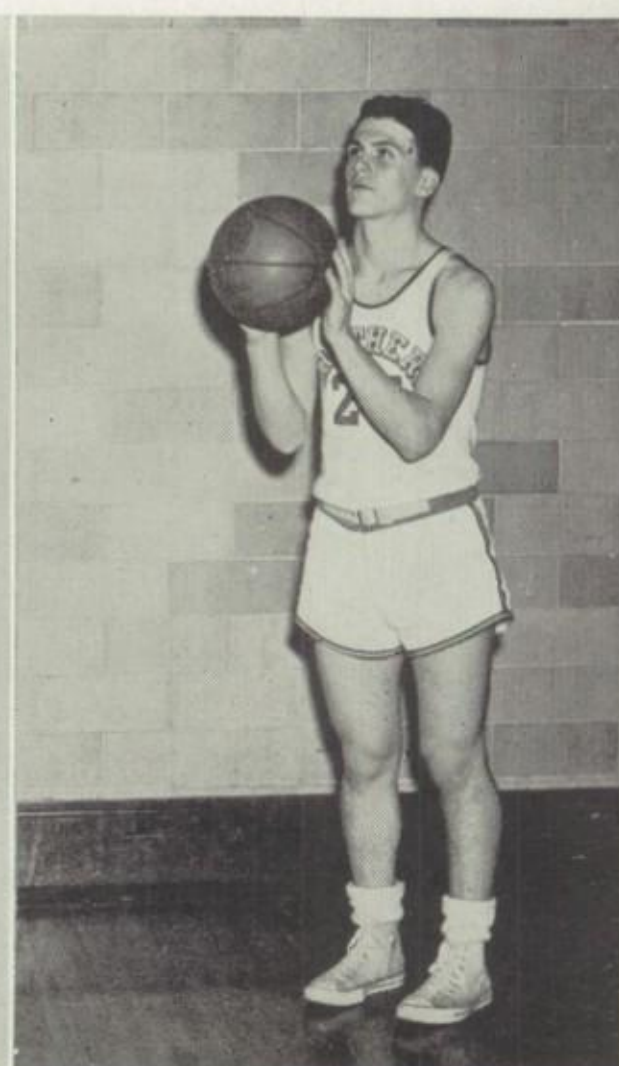

Lefty Johnson

Famous for his deadly left hand jump shot . . . cool and deceptive . . . starred in our best game against V.I.

John DiGiulio goes way up high to get off one of his famed jump-shots (successful, too) in the Gloversville game. CBA took this one by a close score.

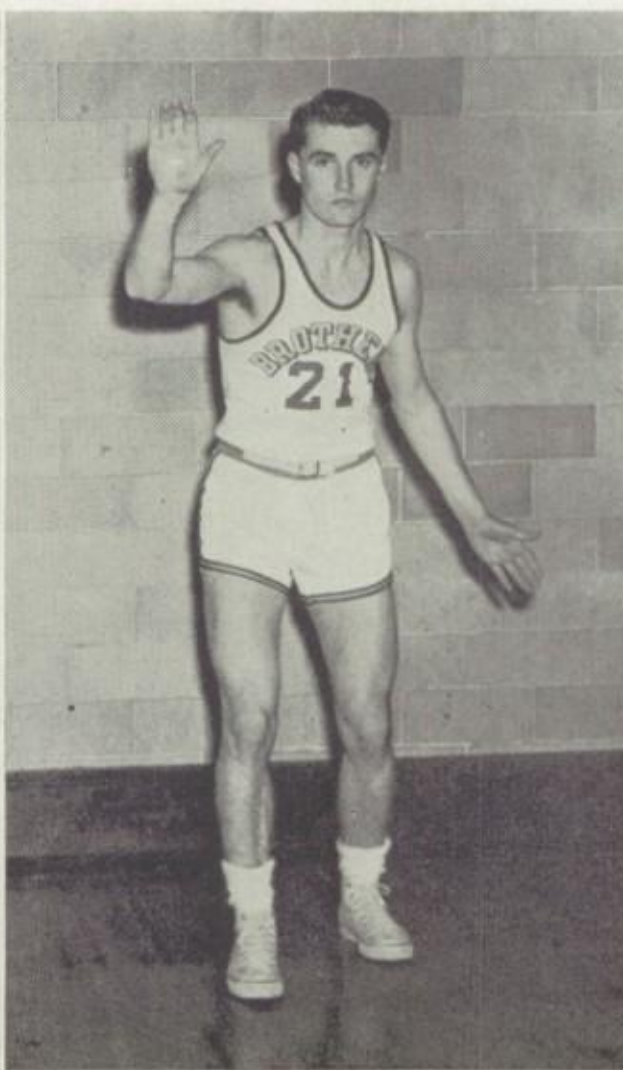

Garth MacFarland

Developed a great jump shot . . . strong rebounder on offense and defense . . . high in St. Columbia's game with 19.

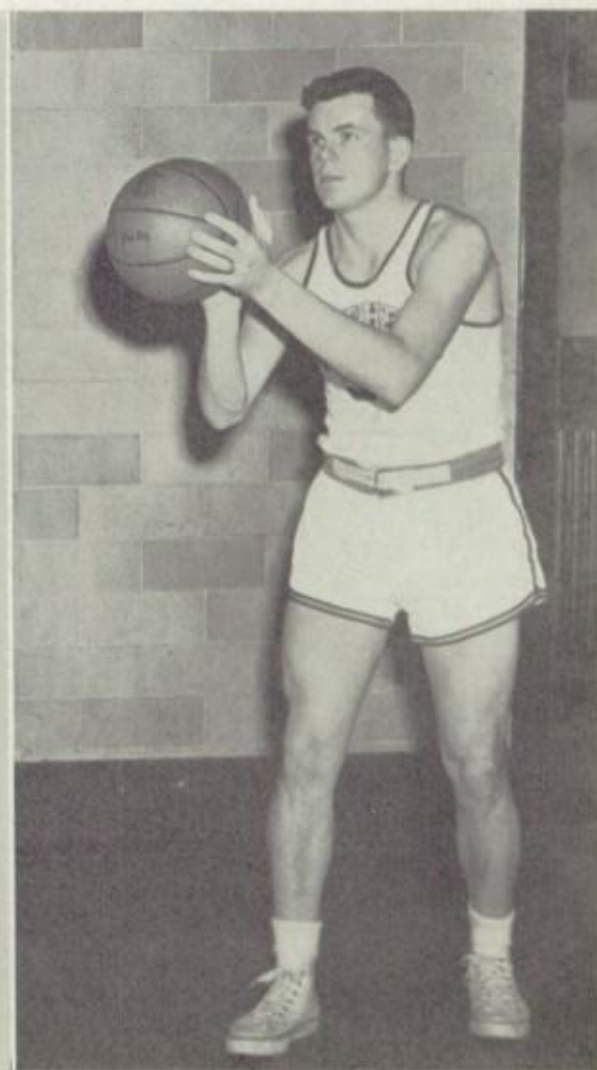

Ray Casey

Called on by Coach O'Haire in the tight spots . . . tops in ball-stealing . . . an artist of the push shot.

John LaFond

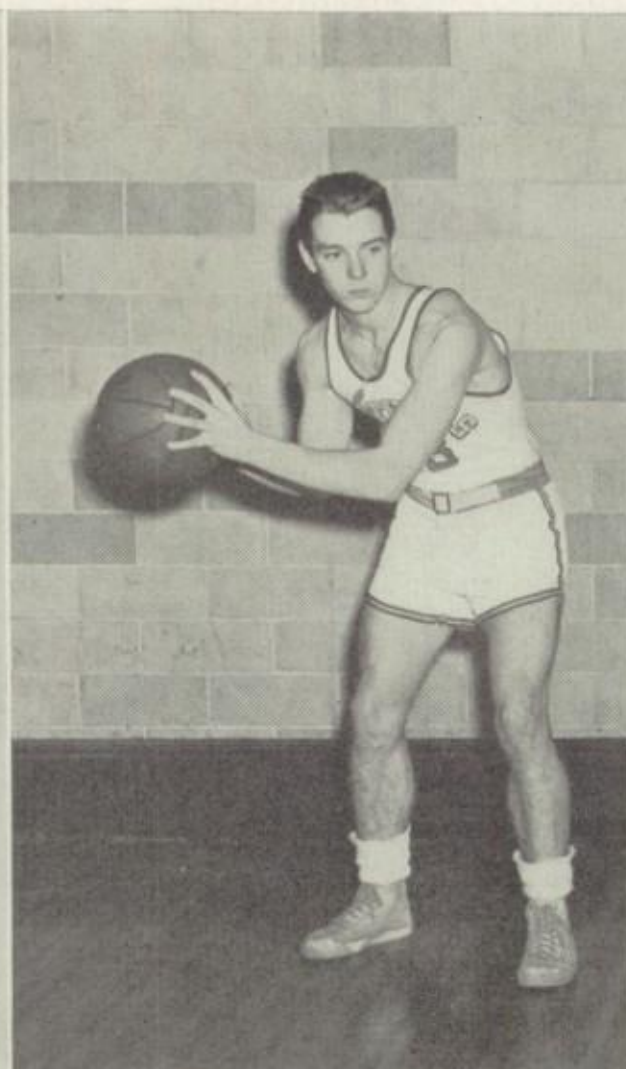

Popular with players and crowd . . . best with his jump shot . . . could keep opponents guessing . . . smooth and deft.

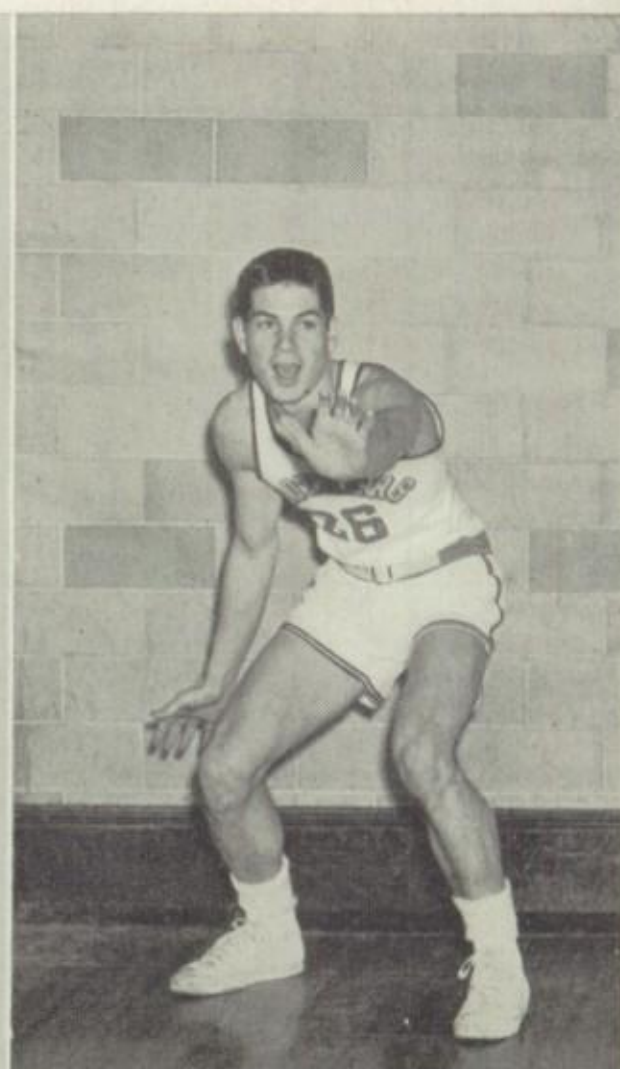

Jim Donahue

Can drive and set equally well . . . draws fouls and is deadly on the foul line . . . A Junior, he'll be the ball hawk of next year's club.

Ken Robinson

"Turk" will be the set shot on next year's club . . . hampered by illness this year . . . will be a mainstay next season.

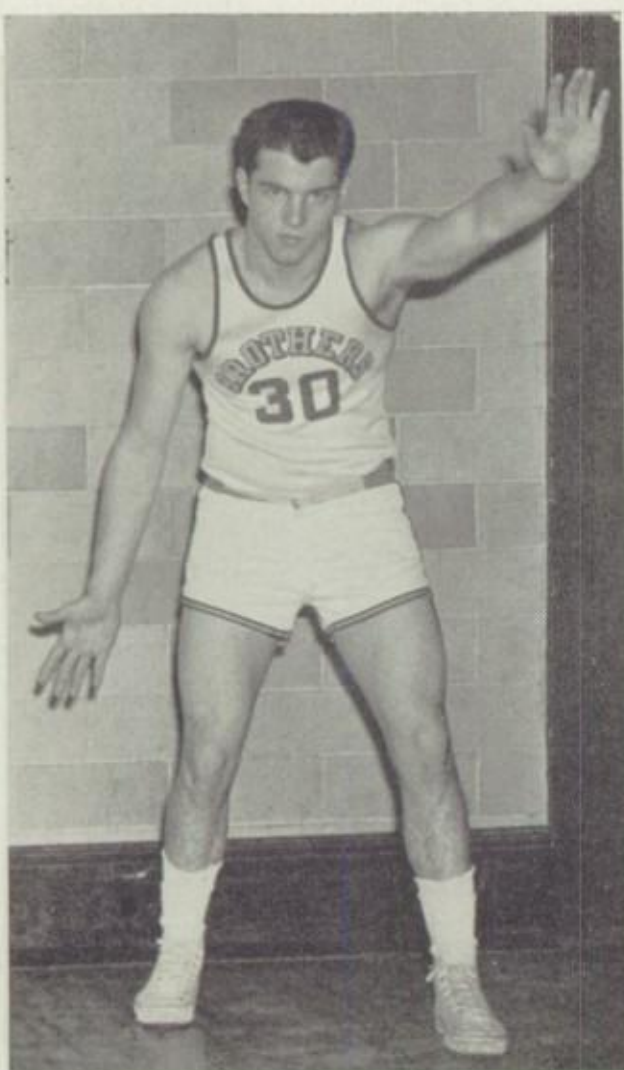

Jack Riley

An aggressive rebounder . . . has also developed a good hook shot . . . a fast man and full of fight.

JUNIOR VARSITY TEAM - 1955

A Sophomore . . . will be a starter next year . . . great ball-handler . . . strong, and able to move with the fastest.

Brian McNulty

A defensive specialist . . . has one more year of Varsity play . . . best with a driving lay-up shot.

Darrell Burns

"Ish" was the Junior starter on this year's team . . . plenty of drive and spirit . . . next year's captain.

In front (l. to r.): John Farrar, James McGuinness, captain.
Seated: Kevin Killelea, Philip McCann, Anthony Cardona, Gary DeSormeau, Barry Plunkett, John Flynn, Wilfred Kenny.
Standing: Brother William, Coach, John McMahon, Joseph Early, John O'Connor, Rogers Riley, Robert Henderson, Gaynell Whelan, James Moore.

FRESHMAN TEAM OF 1955

CBA RIFLE TEAMS

Varsity—1955

First Row (l. to r.): Frank Tardio, Fred Hoey, Robert Urschel.
Second Row: Hank McFerran, Karl Doll, Joseph Farrar, Emery Thibodeau.
Third Row: Neil Walsh, Manager, Alfred Turner, John Clancy, Meldon Kelsey, Capt., Charles Mead.

Pictured at the right is Henry J. McFerran, the anchor man on this year's Rifle Team, Hank, as he is called by his many friends on the team, is the most improved shooter of the year. Consistently hitting over 190. In the Hearst Individual scoring, he shot 192 to take 1st place in the 1st Army Area. Hank also has the rating of Distinguished Rifleman.

1st HEARST TEAM

Rev. Brother Paul, Moderator; Capt. Raymond Joyce, Coach; Joseph Farrar, Emery Thibodeau, Karl Doll, Hank McFerran, Charles Mead.

This team won top honors in the 1st Army Area, and Third Place (out of 1600 schools) in the entire country.

Standing: Brother A. Paul, Moderator, Robert Urschel, James Fraley, Raymond Joyce, Coach.

Karl Doll, an "Expert," shows his style in the "Sitting" position. Karl always has a 50 in this spot.

HEARST SECOND TEAM

Second Row: Tony Cordi, Robert Urschel, Emery Thibodeau, John Lewis, Leonard Schleicher, John Caserly, Joseph Meany.

Joseph Farrar, who is always in the "Top Five", demonstrates his outstanding "Kneeling" position. Joe is another CBA Rifleman who has earned the official title of "Expert."

"But I'm not the manager, honest!" says Capt. Meldon Kelsey to Joseph Werschler, as the Junior High boy examines his well tagged shooting jacket.

The Grammar School Varsity played a full schedule of games through the winter basketball season, and posted a good record of 9 wins and 9 losses. The members of this team were: Kneeling (l. to r.): J. Vroman, R. Walton, R. Lavigne, T. Schaller. Standing: W. Murphy, D. Oberting, J. Pariseau, T. North, J. Valente, J. Pedlow, D. Yezzi, W. Adams.

GRADE SCHOOL ATHLETICS

They start young at CBA—that's the reason that our Varsity is tops on the Rifle Range. Representing the Grammar School was the Rifle Team composed of William Kelleher, Kenneth Gawronski, John Tickell, Richard Nash, Richard Catalano and Walter Zurn.

DYNAMOS

The Cadet Regiment gave a great account of itself in the yell department during the basketball season of 1955. The Seven Dynamos, coached and energized by Brother Arator, did a wonderful job leading the cheers. At the right, Kevin Reilly, Tom Raymond, Mike Mulderry, Orry Barr, Jack Cummings, Jay Dunigan and Bob Mahoney.

FOLLOW THE FIVE

The team got fine support, both at home games and on the road. "Follow the Five" was the watchword of the season. Leading the enthusiasts were the officers of the Five Club: Andy Matthews, Mike Collins, Ray Donnelly and Dan Muth.

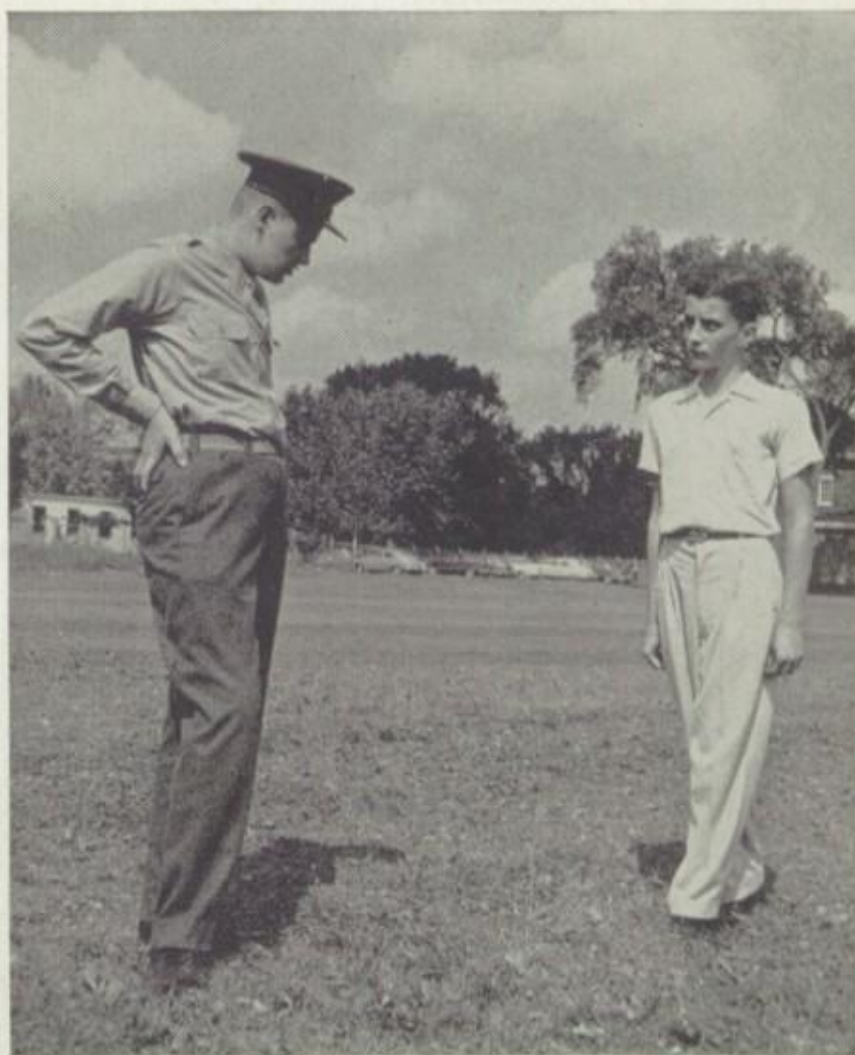

Is this a cheer, or did somebody say "Free Cokes?" The Dynamos take a breather, while the stands let go.

AS THE YEAR GOT UNDER WAY —

SILVER JUBILEE OF BROTHER PAUL

The cadets of C.B.A. were privileged, early in October, to assist at the Silver Jubilee Mass of Reverend Brother Paul, FSC. The occasion was an inspiration to all, especially when we learned that Brother Paul was a resident of our own Capitol area, and a graduate of LaSalle Institute, Troy. The Mass was celebrated by Reverend Father Basil Corbett, OFM Conv., who also extended the best wishes of students and faculty to the Jubilarian.

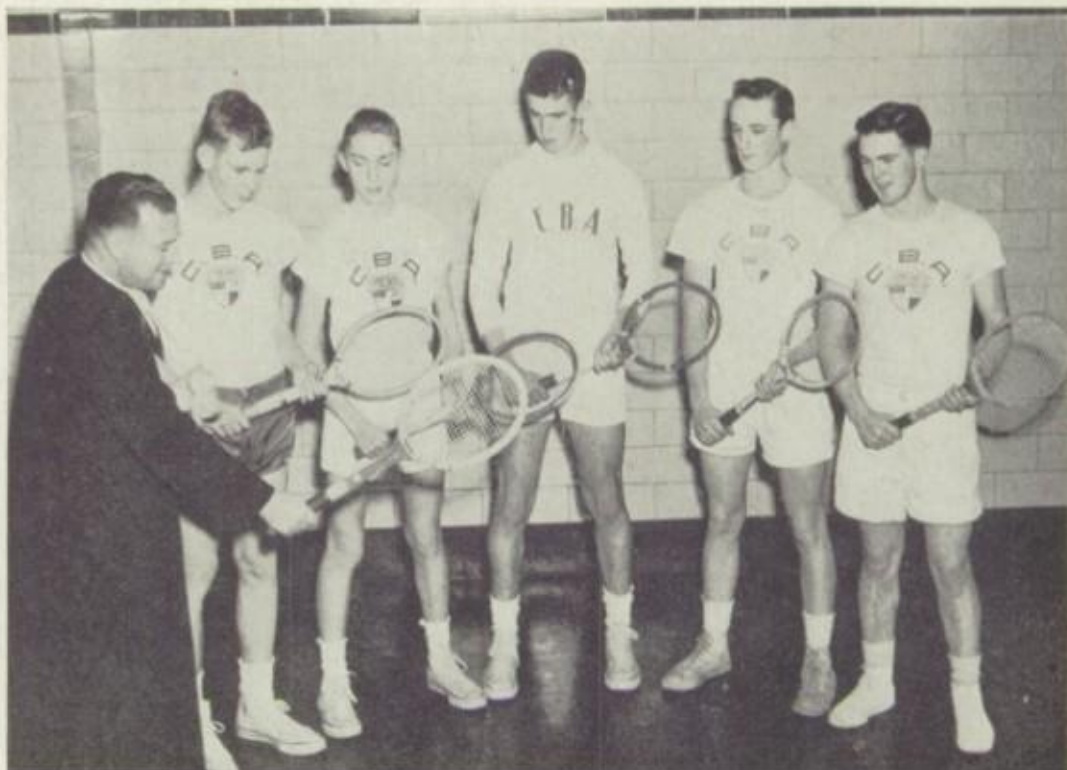

FASHION SHOW

A sure sign of autumn is the Ladies Auxiliary Fall Card Party. This year a Fashion Show was presented on the same evening. Among the "C.B.A. models" were the mothers of two of our students, Mrs. James McElhone and Mrs. James Collins, shown at the left with young Kevin McCarthy and Brendan Riley.

THERE'S AN ACTIVITY FOR EVERYONE

CBA COURTMEN

BAND LEADERS

An all-year job is shared by Professor James Leyden and Brother B. Antony, Band Instructor and Moderator respectively. Their first plans have to do with getting the Band ready for football game appearances.

GRID CHOIR

Football practice can be very tiring, but just mention a song, and the Glee Club Footballers sound a merry note.

Standing (and parallel to the bottom row): John DiGiulio, John Horan and Harry Ford.

SCHOOL IS THE PLACE WHERE FRIENDS ARE MADE

CRAFTSMEN

Fascinating to do, and fascinating to just watch. David Delehanty is absorbed in Richard Armory's painting job while William Heim peeks in the door. The Arts and Crafts Class, under Brother Aloysius direction, has made a real hit with the Junior High boys.

GOAT GETTER

That little feller, Billy the XIIth, always seems to make a big hit with the crowd, but somehow he just doesn't seem to help the team too much. Is he a jinx? Holding the monster are (l. to r.): Ed Vishnesky, Robert O'Sullivan, Frances DeFrancesco, and James Williams.

BREEZY CHATTER

CHRISTMAS IS THE TIME FOR GIVING

THANKS, ISH!

Christmas bells ring out once more as our school Santa (Darrell Burns) presents Col. Dan Muth with a trumpet to replace his whistle. Lt. Col. Dennis Corbett, the M. C., finds it quite funny.

AWARDS DAY

It took a lot of hard work and patient practice to win the school letter. Looking with pride at their achievements are Dave Foster and Jim Williams. The fellow in the background is the New Look.

GRACIOUS GIVER

Through the gifts of the Ladies Auxiliary members, C.B.A. was able to send Christmas packages to the tots at St. Vincent's Home, and we were honored to have His Excellency, Bishop William A. Scully preside at the distribution. The children didn't seem at all concerned that Santa is wearing black instead of red. The Bishop's helpers are Cadets Anthony Cordi, and James McNutt.

THANK YOU***

The Staff of the CADET of 1955 expresses its deep thanks to everyone who helped in the production of this yearbook. Among them are: Brother B. Thomas and the entire Faculty of C.B.A.; Mrs. Dorothy Fellows, Mr. Frank Craig and Mr. Paul Birch of the Gustave Lorey Studios; Mr. Thomas Flynn and Mr. Anthony Tardio; Mr. Peter S. Gurwit of the Jahn and Ollier Engraving Co; Mr. James Gilmore of the S. K. Smith Cover Co.; Mr. David McConnell of the Benton Review Publishing Co. Inc.

THE SENIORS - ALWAYS READY FOR A LAUGH

OVER-STUFFED LOCKER

This is what is done to Bill Straney after he's read one of his epic poems or when he's trying to prove that he really did lose 20 pounds, but there you are and there he is. The strong finger boys on top are Charles Sano and Tom Bailey, and the rest of the mob standing are (l. to r.): John O'Connell, Tim Caulfield, John Di-Giulio, Bill Straney, Frank Wallingford, Ed Kane, Ray Donnelly, John Romano. Kneeling are Dan Muth and Mike Riley.

TV SNACK

Ever wonder who remembers those books you forgot? Here they are: Brother Francis' assistants: James Williams and John Flynn.

The coming of the airplane holds nothing over C.B.A., as these cadets prepare to take to the air. (L. to R.): Maurice Eagen, Frank Bloomfield, Mario Prividera, Valentino Salustri, Leo Dott, George Pappas, John Hanlon.

The tall, short, and round of our Glee Club, (Vince Garufi, Will Straney, and Cliff Lehman, of course.) prepare to serenade the school. It's not the music but the noise that bothers us!

A PLEDGE

For over half a century men with talents, men with ideas and men with vision, painstakingly selected for special aptitude, have worked together in a community of craftsmen.

These Josten craftsmen, inspired with the belief that precious metal should be increasingly endowed with symbolism and artistry, have pledged traditional honest craftsmanship and unfailing devotion to high standards in the creation and fashioning of fine jewelry for the Christian Brothers Academy Cadet Corps.

Sons of C.B.A.,

We Salute You!

Hats off to you, men of Christian Brothers Academy!

We are proud to congratulate you on the fine achievements of your school and the part each of you has played in making such progress possible.

You are indeed fortunate to be under the tutelage of the Christian Brothers, whose outstanding work in the fields of education and religious training is well known throughout the world. We know, too, that you appreciate the value of the military knowledge and training you have received, which will be of much benefit to you in the future.

We at Savard and Colburn are also proud and appreciative of the small part we have been fortunate in playing in this fine picture of progress and accomplishment, through the furnishing of C.B.A. blue dress uniforms during the past several years. It has been a pleasure to have you as our friends and as we look to the future we assure you that we will ever be constant to our motto: Quality, Service and Satisfaction.
